How to Release Fish (According to Ontario Sport Fishing Regulations.)

If you catch a fish that you must or wish to release for any reason, follow these rules to help protect the fish:

- Time is essential. Do not play a fish too long if you plan to release it. It will be too exhausted to recover.
- In deep water, bring fish up slowly to prevent stress from changes in temperature and pressure.
- Keep the fish in the water as much as possible. Don't let it flop on the sand or rocks. Even a few centimetres of water under a thrashing fish protects it.
- Handle fish gently. Keep your hands wet. Don't put your fingers in the gills or eye sockets. Don't squeeze small fish, lift them by the lower lip. A net can be helpful; be sure to keep it in the water if possible.
- Remove hooks quickly with long-nosed pliers. Never tear out hooks. If a hook is deeply caught in the fish, cut the line and leave the hook in. It will do less harm to the fish.

- If a fish is unconscious, revive it by holding it upright in the water, facing it upstream. Move the fish forward so that water runs through the gills (this is a kind of "artificial respiration" for fish!). It may take a few minutes. When the fish begins to struggle, release it.
- Never put a fish, that you plan to release, on a stringer. Use a live well or release as noted above.

Area #20

Area 20 runs south of Highway 2. This area includes Brighton, Trenton, Belleville, Prince Edward County, Napanee, Amherst Island and Ernestown and most of Lake Ontario. Note: Ineligible areas: North of No. 1 dam, Trenton. North of CPR bridge, Belleville.

Fishing without a license

Under the new regulations, the previous fine of $50 for angling without a license is now $155. The fine for using more than 1 line in Area 8 has doubled to $50 plus $50 for each additional line. There are additional fines for keeping more than one trophy fish per day.

Tackle Share

What is Tackle Share?

O.F.A.H. Tackle Share© is a copyright program of the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters. This program is designed to lend fishing rods, reels and basic tackle to children and novice anglers who do not have their own fishing equipment and are eager to experience the excitement of fishing.

The new O.F.A.H. Tackle Share© program has arrived to more than 80 communities across Ontario, giving aspiring anglers an opportunity to go fishing.

In Zone 20, we do not have enough lending units. There are only 5 that we can identify and Kiwanis is working to see if more can be created and Kiwanis will also work to increase the visibility of the program.
